BC History

Vancouver Noir 1930-1960

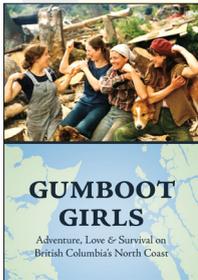

It was an era of gambling, smuggling rings, grifters, police corruption, bootleggers, brothels, murders, and more. It was also a time of intensified concern with order, conformity, structure, and restrictions. Vancouver Noir provides a fascinating insight into life in the Terminal City, noir-style.

Gumboot Girls

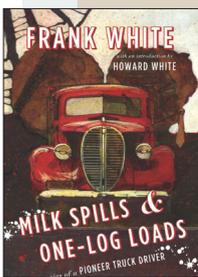

Adventure, Love & Survival on the North Coast of British Columbia

Gumboot Girls tells the stories of thirty-four women, through their own eyes, as they moved from their comfortable city-dwelling surroundings to the rugged north coast. Part back-to-the-land, part adventure, heartbreak and love, this collection of stories was inspired by the book Girls Like Us by Sheila Weller.

On the Water

The Oil Man and the Sea Navigating the Northern Gateway

In this beautifully written and powerful evocation of ecology, culture and history, Kopecky explores the region that would be profoundly impacted by the Northern Gateway Pipeline proposal. He meditates on the line between impartial reportage and environmental activism, ultimately arguing there are some places oil tankers should never go.
