CLAIMING THE LAND: BRITISH COLUMBIA AND THE MAKING OF A NEW EL DORADO

by Daniel Marshall | Ronsdale Press | 9781553805021

Marshall focuses on the 1858 Fraser River gold rush and its little-understood Canyon War between the California mining culture and that of the First Nations, with the British struggling to keep the peace—resulting in the formal inauguration of colonialism, Indigenous reserves, and the expansion of Canada to BC.

$24.95, 400 pp., PB, June 2018

VOICE IN THE WILD: A MEMOIR

by Laurie Sarkadi | Caitlin Press | 9781987915754

After plans to live in Africa shatter, young journalist Laurie Sarkadi moves to the subarctic city of Yellowknife seeking wilderness and adventure. Lessons from the natural world arrive weekly, if not daily: black bears roam her dreams, as well as her deck, teaching introspection; wolves inspire her to persevere.

$24.95, 212 pp., PB, May 2018

KUEI, MY FRIEND: A CONVERSATION ON RACE AND RECONCILIATION

by Deni Ellis Béchard & Natasha Kanapé Fontaine | Talonbooks | 9781772011951

Kuei, My Friend is an engaging book of letters: a literary and political encounter between Innu poet Natasha Kanapé Fontaine and Québécois-American novelist Deni Ellis Béchard. Choosing the epistolary form, they decided to engage together in a frank conversation about racism and reconciliation.
