SOFT ZIPPER: OBJECTS, FOOD, ROOMS

by George Bowering | New Star Books | 9781554201723

This engaging memoir relates stories about George Bowering's small-town BC upbringing and his parents — his father long dead and his mother more recently passed on at the age of 100 — while at the same time honouring the author's other "parents": Gertrude Stein, Charles Olson, and Roland Barthes.

$19.00, 160 pp., paperback, Mar/21

WALKING AWAY FROM HATE: OUR JOURNEY THROUGH EXTREMISM

by Jeannette Manning & Lauren Manning | Tidewater Press | 9781990160004

As a troubled teen, Lauren Manning sought refuge online in the angry world of black metal music. When she met a recruiter who offered her the acceptance she craved, the doctrine of white supremacy supplanted the values of her middle-class upbringing, and Lauren traded suburbia for a life of violence and criminality.

$23.95, 240 pp., paperback, Apr/21

WHAT WAS SAID TO ME: THE LIFE OF STI'TUM'ATUL'WUT, A COWICHAN WOMAN

$24.95, 256 pp., paperback, Apr/21

CREELAND

by Dallas Hunt | Nightwood Editions | 9780889713925

Creeland is a poetry collection concerned with notions of home and the quotidian attachments we feel to those notions, even across great distances. Even in an area such as Treaty Eight (northern Alberta), a geography decimated by resource extraction and development, people are creating, living, laughing, surviving and flourishing — or at least attempting to.

$18.95, 128 pp., paperback, Apr/21

THE WIG-MAKER

by Janet Gallant & Sharon Thesen | New Star Books | 9781554201716

A powerful tale of violence, grief, resilience, and transformation, told in the voice of Janet Gallant, transcribed and lineated as a long poem by Sharon Thesen, The Wig-Maker gathers and weaves together themes and incidents that accumulate toward “the moan” of racism, sexual abuse, maternal abandonment, suicide, mental illness, and addiction.

$18.00, 104 pp., paperback, Mar/21

UNDOING HOURS

by Selina Boan | Nightwood Editions | 9780889713963

Selina Boan's debut poetry collection, Undoing Hours, considers the various ways we undo, inherit, reclaim and (re)learn. Boan's poems emphasize sound and breath. They tell stories of meeting family, of experiencing love and heartbreak, and of learning new ways to express and understand the world around her through nêhiyawêwin.

$18.95, 96 pp., paperback, Apr/21

CATALOGUING CULTURE: LEGACIES OF COLONIALISM IN MUSEUM DOCUMENTATION

by Hannah Turner | UBC Press | 9780774863933

How does material culture become data? Why does this matter, and for whom? As the cultures of Indigenous peoples in North America were mined for scientific knowledge, years of organizing, classifying, and cataloguing hardened into accepted categories, naming conventions, and tribal affiliations – much of it wrong.

$32.95, 260 pp., paperback, Dec/20

GLORIOUS BIRDS: A CELEBRATORY HOMAGE TO HAROLD AND MAUDE

by Heidi Greco | Anvil Press | 9781772141719

This book takes us back half a century to when this one-of-a-kind film was released - a time with its own kind of turmoil, but a time as well of a different kind of innocence - one worth exploring again. Fifty years, traditionally a golden anniversary, is surely an appropriate time to celebrate.

$18.00, 96 pp., paperback, Mar/21

HERE & GONE: ARTWORK OF VANCOUVER & BEYOND

by Michael Kluckner | Midtown Press | 97819882242385

In his first set of paintings published in nine years, Michael Kluckner explores surviving relics of old Vancouver and rural British Columbia, scenes like those in his award-winning, best-selling books from the 1990s and 2000s. Accompanying them are images of people and places that capture a kind of “Vancouver poetry,” and artwork from his travel sketchbooks of journeys around the world.

$19.95, 80 pp., paperback, Oct/21

THE E. J. HUGHES BOOK OF BOATS

by Robert Amos | TouchWood Editions | 9781771513364

Boat lovers of all ages and people who enjoy the scenery of BC's coast will delight in this charming gift book, a worthy addition to books about BC's art history. This new compendium features never-before-seen sketches and photographs accompanying full-page illustrations of some of the artist's finest works.

$22.00, 88 pp., hardcover, Sep/20

A IS FOR ANEMONE: A FIRST WEST COAST ALPHABET

by Roy Henry Vickers & Robert Budd | Harbour Publishing | 9781550179477

With crisp, luminous illustrations by celebrated Indigenous artist Roy Henry Vickers, and a simple rhythmic text, this sturdy board book introduces the alphabet using iconic imagery of the West Coast, creating a book that will be cherished by young readers and their families.

$14.95, 28 pp., board book, May/21

THE DISABILITY EXPERIENCE: WORKING TOWARD BELONGING

by Hannalora Leavitt & Belle Wuthrich | Orca Book Publishers | 9781459819283

You see disability, I see diversity. People with disabilities (PWDs) have the same aspirations for their lives as you do for yours. The difference is that PWDs don't have the same access to education, employment, housing, transportation and healthcare in order to achieve their goals.

$24.95, 192 pp., paperback, Apr/21

GROWING UP ELIZABETH MAY: THE MAKING OF AN ACTIVIST

by Sylvia Olsen Cate & May Burton | Orca Book Publishers | 9781459823709

Before most people had thought about pollution, Elizabeth May was an anti-pollution activist. Before most people had heard about environmentalism, she was an environmentalist.

$24.95, 136 pp., paperback, May/21

MEET YOUR FAMILY / RENCONTRE TA FAMILLE

by David Bouchard & Kristy Cameron | Medicine Wheel Education | 9781989122662 | 9781989122686

Mother Earth, we come from her, we go to her, without her we wouldn't be here, she gives all of us life and because of her we are all one family. In many segments of Indigenous life we speak of Mother Earth, Father Sky, Grandfather Sun, and Grandmother Moon. Meet Your Family is a rhythmic poem that will enlighten readers on how to view these important figures and share a greater concept of seeing the world as our natural family.

$24.99, 28 pp., mixed media product, May/21

A LETHAL LESSON: A LANE WINSLOW MYSTERY

GHOST GEOGRAPHIES: FICTIONS

by Tamas Dobozy | New Star Books | 9781554201792

Drawing on his Hungarian background and Hungary’s history, as well as his experience growing up on Canada’s West Coast and living in central Canada, Tamas Dobozy creates a magical and potent universe that invites comparison to the ambitious fictional worlds created by Bolano and other contemporary masters.

$24.00, 320 pp., paperback, Sep/21

MYSTERIOUS DREAMS OF THE DEAD

by Terry Watada | Anvil Press | 9781772141504

At the heart of Mysterious Dreams of the Dead is the spiritual search for a father who died in a plane crash north of Lake Superior when his son was fifteen. Mike Shintani decides in his early thirties to address the curious circumstances surrounding his father’s death; the senior Shintani’s body was never found, and wolves circled the crash site as if guarding the area.

$20.00, 256 pp., paperback, Dec/20

THE OCTOPUS HAS THREE HEARTS

by Rachel Rose | Douglas and McIntyre | 9781771622882

These are stories about damaged people who have committed, witnessed or survived terrible acts and who must make their way in an unforgiving world. From a goat farmer to a suburban adulterer, a violent child to a polyamorous marine biologist, Rose’s diverse characters have little in common except a life-sustaining connection to the animal world.

$22.95, 272 pp., paperback, Apr/21

PEOPLE LIKE FRANK: AND OTHER STORIES FROM THE EDGE OF NORMAL

by Jenn Ashton | Tidewater Press | 9781777010164

On the edge of normal, challenges take many forms — the everyday can be an adventure and the ordinary a triumph. A young woman in a group home investigates a mysterious piece of knitting. An obsessed bag boy does grim battle with a squirrel. A woman, an asparagus bag and a garbageman have a tumultuous short-term relationship. Otherwise unremarkable achievements become epic on the edge of normal.

$19.95, 200 pp., paperback, Oct/20

THE ROGUE WAVE

by Paul Nicholas Mason | Now or Never Publishing | 9781989689219

Andrew and his fiancée, Hannah, are on board a whale-watching boat in the Bay of Fundy when the vessel is hit by a rogue wave. Thirty-eight people are rescued by the coast guard, but Hannah is not one of them, and she is subsequently presumed to have drowned. One week later, however, a friend sends Andrew a link to a wedding video shot in southern Mexico, and who is there but Hannah, sitting next to a man her friends do not recognize.
